

Teacher Guide to Edu-Ventures Tours

Edu-Ventures makes leading a group easy. You can count on our years of experience to help you every step of the way. We have created numerous resources to guide you from finding the perfect location all the way to your return flight.

Why should I organize a student trip at my school?

- Traveling with students gives you an opportunity to interact with students in a different setting
- Show students firsthand what you have been teaching in your classroom
- Enhance your own classroom instruction by incorporating your travel experience
- Free travel!

Why should I travel with Edu-Ventures?

- Great teacher rewards including free travel
- Stress free!
 - We'll literally be right next to you every step of the way
 - We will meet you at your school to get you started.
 - Every parent meeting will be managed by us
 - All student and parent concerns are handled by us, not you
- Training will be provided for team building activities to improve group dynamics

